GETAWAY DAY AT MORRIS PARK.

This Meeting and the Racing Sea-Son in This State Come to a Close Te-Day.

(Special to The Evening World. RACE TRACK, MORRIS PARK, Oct. 15.-The fact that it was the last day of the season in this State was sufficient to induce a large crowd to visit the track this afternoon. The programme was excellent in character and promised some brilliant sport.

Dorlan was withdrawn from the Spe cial Race and from the Pelham Bay handicap. He was suffering from his old complaint, colle, and Trainer Rogers did not care to give him such a hard race as the Special promised to be,

The track was in fine shape and very fast. The weather was a trifle Wintry, but perfect for the enjoyment of out door sport.

Halma fell in the third race. The accident was caused by Silvie, who crossed McClelland's filly at the turn into the stretch. Clayton was not in
